To

The Secretary, Public Health Department,
— Government of Madras.

Through The President, District Board,
South Canara, Mangalore.

Through The District Health Officer,
South Canara, Mangalore.

From The President, Panchayat Board,
Shirva, Udipi. S.K.

Sir,

We have raised the pay of Dogra, ~~the Sweeper~~ of our ~~Panchayat Board,~~ from Rs 5-0-0 to Rs 6-0-0 per month. Shirva is a large village. It has got a town by name Manchakal. The sweeper has to clean the roads and latrine of this town daily. Hence Rs 6-0-0 per month is not too much for his hard manual. The annual income of our Panchayat Board is nearly Rs 900-0-0 per a year.

Therefore, we pray, that you may be pleased to sanction our proposal. We have herewith enclosed the resolution of the Panchayat Board and the necessary records connected.

Through

The Asst. Panchayat Officer,
Karkal, S.K.

From The President, Panchayat Board,
Shirva, Udipi. S.K.

Sir,

We were paying Dogra, the sweeper, at the rate of Rs 5-0-0 per month before this. We resolved to pay him one rupee more according to his prayer in which he had told that he has to clean the roads and the lactrine daily and that he should be given one rupee more. To this it was given in your order N.Dis. 3084-40 that the recent circulars of the Local Board Inspector should be seen. But even in that circular no objection in raising the pay of the worker in the Health Department is found. We think that it is not too much if a pay of Rs 6-0-0 is paid to the worker in the Health Department as the annual income of the Panchayat Board is Rs 900/-. Therefore we request you to be kind enough to permit us to pay him Rs 6/- per month.
